

志 望 理 由 書 (1/2)

Please translate the following text into English. The text to be translated is a document for an entrance examination application.

In the underline below, please transcribe the text within the frame in your own handwriting with a pen (ballpoint pen is acceptable). This signifies your pledge that all documents related to the application have been created fairly. Please understand the content and write carefully.

I, (applicant's name), am applying for the entrance examination of Tsuchiura Nihon University High School. The reason for my application is as follows, and all the application documents, including preliminary assignments, have been prepared by myself, excluding certificates and the like.

(Date of Entry)

(Applicant's Name)

※Please be sure to write in your own handwriting.

志 望 理 由

Please write your reasons for applying to our school. In your essay, be mindful of your past activities and how they relate to your self-promotion documents, and please write about the following points:

- What kind of high school life do you want to lead if you are admitted to our school?
- How do you want to utilize your strengths and experiences as a returnee student?

